SPLENDID HEALTH RECORD IN MAY

Marked Improvement Over May Year Ago Shown

OK DRINKING WATER

Department Busy And Much Useful Work Accomplished—54 Births and 14 Deaths in May

Our wonderful good luck continues No cases of scarlet fever, diptheria, or smallpox have been reported to this department during May. There have been several cases of typhoid brought in from the country for treatment in our hospital, but only one case has developed within the city limits. This is a marked improvement over last year.

From January 1st to May 31st, last year, we had a total of 19 cases of typhoid. For the same period of this year, we had only 4 cases. This is indeed very gratifying.

It is, however, simply one indication of what efficient water, milk and food inspection, together with general sanitary work will accomplish, if carried out honestly and by a trained personnel.

I am pleased to state that our daily laboratory test of the city water supply show that it continues to remain safe for drinking purposes. If anything should develop to render it unsafe, I would immediately issue warning stating such a fact.

Our food, milk and general sanitary inspection work has been pushed with vigor during the past, as can be seen in the detailed report. A number of people were brought before the police court for failure to heed our notices to connect their properties to the city sewers.

670 pounds of tuberculous meat and over 100 pounds of chickens and fish were condemned and destroyed during the month of May. We made about the usual number of examinations in our laboratory, over 300. This is about as many as we can handle with efficiency.

We had 58 patients in our venereal clinic, and gave a total of 493 treatments. We also gave 80 treatments to the city poor, at special clinic, and 10 treatments to the inmates at the Alms House. As the detailed report fully shows, every member of the Department has been kept busy, and a large amount of useful work has been accomplished.

There were 54 births and 14 deaths during the month of May.

WAS A STRONG ADVOCATE FOR BETTER HIGHWAYS

Washington, D. C., June 7.—When A. G. Batchelder, executive chairman of the American Automobile Association fell to his death in the tragic airplane accident off Indian Head, May 28, he left behind him, as his last work for better highways, a letter addressed to all motor club officials telling them that national highway legislation was in its final stage in Congress and asking them to give their support to the Townsend measure as the one containing all of the principles so long fought for by the A. A. A.

"Batch," as he was popularly known, did not live to sign the letter, but when Acting President David Jameson read it, he promtply sent it forward to all clubs affiliated with the A. A. A., together with a brief postscript calling their attention to it as the last effort and request of the well loved leader.

"No one man did as much for better highways in this country as 'Batch,'" said George C. Diehl, president of the A .A. A., on the eve of his departure for Europe recently. "and of course those of us who are left, will carry on the work to the best of our ability.

Sharon, Pa., June 7.—Pinned beneath a big touring automobile when it crashed through the bridge railing and tumbled into the stream, Mrs. Adolph Harkovitz, aged 34 years, of Cleveland, was drowned early today, six miles west of here. REPORT ON FINANCES MADE TO COUNCIL

Review of Report Submitted by Chairman Ticer

ESTIMATE FOR 1921

Figures Based on Receipt of Last ear Expect Net Revenue of $185,-273.30

A statement of the finances of the city as submitted last Tuesday night to the common council by E. F. Ticer, chairman of the finance committee of council, follows:

The real estate listed for taxation for the year 1920, was as follows:

First ward	$1,749,749.00
Second ward	2,105,595.00
Third ward	2,038,105.00
Fourth ward	1,547,870.00
A total of	$7,441.619.00

This at a rate of two dollars on each hundred would yield to the city, $148,832.38.

The Personal Property was:

First ward	$163,420.00
Second ward	169,038.00
Third ward	217,200.00
Fourth ward	286,716.09
A total of	$836,374.00

for taxation at two dollars per hundred would yield $16,727.48.

There was listed for taxation by the banks, tax on capital etc. as reported by the state authorities, $993 330.00. This under the then existing laws was taxed at $1.25 and would yield to the city, $12,416.-62.

The recapitulation is as follows:

Real Estate,	$148,832.38
Personal Property,	16.727.48
Bank Stock	12,416.62
A total of	$177,976.48

If this entire amount had been paid during the discount period of five per cent, this sum would be reduced to $169,000.00 and then deduct 2 1-2 per cent commission for collecting, it would then leave about $165,000,00. I am using these figures as an illustration, because it is well known that the entire amount of taxes is not so paid.

The records show that of the 1920 taxes charged to the collector, only $156,359.10 was collected; the difference between $177,976.48 assessed, and the amount collected, being $21,617.38. Of this amount, $15,874.00 is owing by the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation.

I am now going to estimate tax receipts for 1921 on the hypothesis that all will be paid during the discount period. I have copies of the report of the State assessors, which are assured to be correct, and can be relied on to furnish this estimate, $8,057,665.00 (Funished by State Corporation Commision.) And their appraisement for 1920 was as follows:

Railroads	$ 414,280.00
Alex. Water Co.	$ 129,220.00
State assessments	$8,057,665.00
Total	$8,601,165.00

Assuming the personal tax to equal the 1920 assessment (Commissioner of Revenue not finished yet, as this is a big job) $850,000.00

A total assessment of	$9,451,165.00

This, at the rate of $2.00 per hundred, will yield $189,023.30.

Tax on Bank stock this year, based on the same as last year, at a $1.00 rate instead of $1.25 will yield approximately $11,000.00

A total of	$200,023.30
Discount of 5 per cent	$10,000.00
2 1-2 per cent commission	$ 4,750.00 14,750.00
Leaving a net revenue of	$185,273.30
Revenue brought forward from page 2	$185,273.30
Segregated taxes at 25c on the $100.00 deducting the 5 per cent will yield	$22,444.25
Licenses	37 000.00
Electric Lighting Company	9,000.00
Police Court Fines	8,000.00
Wash- Va. R. R. franchise	1,600.00
State of Va. 1-3 capitation tax	1,400.00
Miscellaneous,	1,300.00
A total of	$266,017.55

In so far as a close study of what will be, or should be, the recepits of the city during the fiscal year, June 1st, 1921, to May 31, 1922, it is reasonable to assume will be as much as $266,000.00. A good deal of this is based on last year's figures and upon these we must base our figure; we may receive a little more, or a little less; that is left for the future.

The appropriation bill which I now present will in a general way show the appropriations to our various city departments.

TO PUT PUEBLO ON FEET AGAIN

All Able Bodied Men Ordered to Help In Removing Debris

BAR SIGHTSEERS

Work of Recovering Bodies is Proceeding Slowly—Asks U. S. For $20,000,-000

Pueblo, Col., June 7.—Systematic and drastic action to ascertain the number of dead and to clean the city of Pueblo, flood-stricken for three days, was begun this afternoon. Acting under military authority, Lieut.-Col. Paul P. Newlon ordered every able-bodied man to apply himself to the task of removing debris from the streets, as a measure to prevent danger from fire and pestilence.

The order bars sightseers from the city and makes work compulsory, either for the stipulated pay or under military guard without pay.

The city has been divided into eight wards for a sanitary survey, and to each ward have been assigned two doctors and four nurses. The people are being instructed how to prevent and combat diseases and infection. Three isolation hospitals have been established, and Dr. John C. Cornell, of the United States Public Health Service at Denver, who is assisting Dr. W. E. Buck, City Health Officer, declared the situation is well in hand. He said there is not now any epidemic of contagious diseases and that only five cases of chickenpox had been reported to the authorities since the flood. Volunteer doctors from Colorado Springs and 16 from the Public Health Service at Denver are aiding the Pueblo physicians.

Recovery of bodies is progressing slowly, since searchers are impeded by the slowly receding waters and by the great coating of mud over every collection of debris. A careful check by the Associated Press showed 42 bodies in morgues here yesterday. To this list were added 10 more known dead, when a reported for the Pueblo Chieftain made his way from St. Charles Mesa, 6 miles down stream, to report the number of bodies recovered there.

Many bodies probably never will be found, as they were carried down stream below Pueblo by the terrific force of the flood. Searching of the buildings is being conducted today as workmen are engaged in clearing them out.

No estimate can be made accurately of the number of persons missing An effort to do this was made by the Pueblo Chieftain, and this newspaper had a list of approximately 25 persons. This had to be revised frequently, as persons were found.

With the recession of the waters from the inundated district Pueblo citizens were able to make some estimate of the damage that had been don in their city by the nagry waters of the Arkansas and Fountain rivers.

Stretching in an irregular, far-flung oval, 30 blocks long, and of a maximum width of 12 blocks, comprising about 350 city blocks, the damage area after the curtain of water had been withdrawn, presented an aspect of desolation that forced many observers to revise the early estimate of $10,000,000 to one nearer $15,000,000.

In a proclamation, issued at Colorado Springs, Gov. Oliver H. Shoup, said:

"The havoc wrought by the recent floods in Colorado is appalling. Many parts of the State have been affected, but the greatest damage, apparently has been done in the Aransas Valley. The flood probably reaped its largest harvest of human lives and destruction of property in and about the city of Pueblo. It is impossible at this time accurately to estimate either the loss of life or of property, but the toll will be very heavy.

"Knowing that the response will be prompt and generous, I, as Chief Executive of the State, call upon the people of Colorado to contribute to the relief of the flood sufferers. It will require not days, but weeks, and perhaps even months to relieve the situation.

"As Governor I have, on behalf of the people of the State, accepted the offer of the American Red Cross to take general charge and supervision of the relief work. Its officers now are on the ground and are now undertaking the herculean task.

"From a personal inspection of much of the flooded area I can state that the situation is serious. I, therefore, make this urgent appeal for prompt and generous response."

Transportation east and north from the city is just now declared to be the greatest need. Gov. Oliver H. Shoup today telegraphed Senator Phipps and Senator Nicholson to make every effort to get an appropriation of $20,-000,000 to the State of Colorado to repair tracks and rebuild bridges on the lines entering from these directions.

The Senators replied that they did not feel they could consistently make such a request for Federal assistance until facts and conditions have been more definitely determined."

"Whatever figure the death list finally reaches, not half the bodies of the victims of the flood will be recovered," R. G. Breckenridge, president of the Pueblo Rotary Club, said today. He based this statement on peculiarities of the river channel and the drifting of mud over the flooded areas.

Latest estimates of the total damage and crop loss from Canon City to the Kansas line is placed at $20,000,-000 in a telegram from Pueblo Commercial Club to Governor Shoup. Damage in Pueblo City and county will reach six or eight million dollars, the telegram states.

Entrance into the city from the north by rail was affected last night by a train on the Denver and Rio Grande, it was announced by the Colorado Rangers. It was a work train and carried two baggage cars loaded with Red Cross supplies and nurses from Colorado Sprins.

VICTORY MEDALS

The Victory Medal Office, 1112 Capitol street, Richmond, Virginia, accepted and issued more than 1200 Victory Medals to the ex-service men in the state of Virginia, during the past month. This still leaves over 30,000 who have not received this valuable token of their services during the World War, and there remain only about three more weeks in which to apply for the medal through the Richmond office. So now while you are thinking of it, get out that discharge, send it to the above address by registered mail, and the medal will be mailed you, also the discharge. You will not lose the discharge, Just as soon as your service are verified it is returned to you.

It is desired that all who are entitled to this heirloom will make an effort to get it without delay. If you have already received your medal, then tell your friends about it for there are a large number of men who have not received theirs. Send their names to the Victory Medal Office. The medal seems to be much more popular in the cities then in the rural districts, this is probably due to the fact that the men that live in the country find it hard to get to the city and make the application

The rulings of the War Department provides for the issue of the medal to all officers, enlisted men, nurses and army field clerks who served in the United States of France at any time during the World War. Conscientious objectors who refused to wear the uniform or perform duty and men accepted by the local draft boards but rejected at Camp before being assigned to a regular organization are assigned to a regular organization are not entitled to the medal.

A Curious Appointment. In naming Albert D. Lasker of Chicago head of the United States Shipping Board President Harding has certainty placed the people's money on a "dark horse." Mr. Lasker is owner of a big advertising agency and an associate in some business enterprises, but he knows no more about shipping and a national merchant marine than he knows about the people on Mars.

Throughout the last three years, Mr. Lasker has been intimately associated with Will Hays and his money-getters and organizers. That and a moderate business ability seem to have been his sole recommendations for the important post to which the President has assigned him.

It is earnesty to be hoped that in spite of his ignorance of shipping, the new head of the Shipping Board will make good on the job.

Sooner or later, however, there will have to be an end to the curious notion which seems to have arisen in this country that the best man to get to do a thing is a man that knows nothing about it. There really is no common sense in hiring a blacksmith to do your baking or a doctor to do your painting.

Another Split Coming? On the eve of the gathering of the Republican National Committee in Washington, the selection of John T. Adams of Iowa to succeed Will Hays as chairman of the committee seems assured. Adams is a stand-patter of stand-patters.

Thus the guiding reins or the G. O. P. will pass back entirely into the hands of that part or the party which packed the Republican National Convention in 1912, steam-rollered the inimitable Teddy, forced the renomination of Taft and brought about the great party schism.

There are certain feint but omnious noises in various quarters which indicate that it is more than possible that the progressive revolt of 1912 may become the progressive revolution of 1921. Johnson, Borah, LaFollette, Kenyon, Cumminns and many others are said to be ready to lead a real walkout if any attempt is made to do any more steam-rollering in the party organization.

Progressiyes and reactionaries mix little better than oil and water.

On With the Comedy. We are on the verge of another comedy skit in the great farce of Republican peace-making.

The members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee have voted along strict party lines to report out favorably a new peace resolution sponsored, it is strange to say, by Representative Porter who voted against the declaration of war with Germany.

Is it, or is it not, a coincidence that the gentleman upon whom falls the mantle of Republican leadership in foreign affairs in the House of Representatives should be a member who was opposed to the war with Germany? In favor of peace at any price then, Representative Porter is evidently in favor of the same thing now, even if it is a false peace which betrays our friends and allies and begets us nothing.

KNOW YOUR CITY

(Communicated)

We read with a great deal of pleasure Sunday morning the loyalty of the four members of council who stood out so nobly for the six hundred thousand dollar bond issue, and the enthusiastic editor who has just come amongst us, urging a mass meeting and assuming an obligation far beyond our reach, at a high rate of interest and a limited amount of revenue with which to take care of same.

In Mr. Ticer's report to council he stated that thirty-five hundred thousand dollars was in the appropriations, for new street work, that this money would be taken out of the general fund, and that we could proceed immediately. The bond issue could not be realized on before October 1, and then the surplus of thirty-five thousand dollars above the two hundred and sixty five thousand dollars debt be used for a new school building with a temporary loan of fifteen thousand dollars would be $50,000.00 available.

Getting the money, drawing plans, letting contracts, etc., would not get a new school building under way before January 1st, 1922. Next year year we could easily make another appropriation out of the city revenue and interest saved, to finish said building of sixteen rooms. I am heartily in favor of schools and more schools, but there is good business in proceeding lowly—sometimes. We certainly do not want a higher tax rate for Alexandria, the assessment is fixed for the next five years. So how can we get more revenue, as it takes all that we can get right now to run the city. Compare Alexandria with any other city in the state and you will find we are one ahead of them all but we do not compare Alexandria with Washington city, it is not fair. Let's be reasonable, conservative, and things will work out so that grandchildren will not be paying our debt.

An Announcement by
The Studebaker Corporation of America

Eight months ago, when the costs of material and labor appeared to have reached their peak, we made substantial reductions in the prices of Studebaker cars. These reductions were in anticipation of our ability, after the turn of the year, to purchase materials and to fabricate them at lower costs.

The expected savings have been realized.

With them, other savings have been made, as a result of the greatly increased volume which Studebaker has this year enjoyed.

During the first five months of 1921, our volume of business has exceeded that of any other automobile manufacturer except Ford.

The Studebaker plants are running at capacity with unfilled orders on hand for over 7,000 cars.

In this quarter we shall produce 21,000 automobiles against 11,000 in the corresponding period of last year. This is an increase of approximately 100 per cent.

No other automobile manufacturer is making a comparable showing.

We believe that the confidence of the buying public, which has made and is making this record possible, will continue, because it is supported by the quality and value of our products, and these we shall uphold.

We expect that as a consequence the present economical and efficient production basis can be maintained and that we are justified in making further reductions in the prices of Studebaker cars.

DOG TAXES

Richmond, June 7.—Dog taxes collected in Virginia for the license year ended January 31, 1921, totalled $242,721.70, according to statistics compiled and released for publication by the Department of Game and Inland Fisheries, which is charged with enforcement of the law. During the year nearly 7,000 dogs were destroyed by game wardens in the counties, cities and towns, while a total of 8,346 convictions were obtained for violations of the law.

Taxes were paid on a total of 180 433 individual dogs, 153,404 males and 27,029 females. In addition a number of dogs were kept under ken nel licenses.

The dog license fund is kept in the counties as a separate fund for the payment of damages done by dogs, balances at the end of the year going to public roads and schools. From this fund there was paid last year $16,462.18 to farmers for sheep destroyed by dogs, $2,360.00 for fowls destroyed and $690.00 for other stock damaged by dogs. After the payment of all expenses, including fees, there was a balance as of February 1, of $148,336.42 available for roads and schools. The entire fund is kept in the localities, except 15 per cent of the gross collection, which goes to the Department of Game and Inland Fisheries, to be used by the Department in enforcing the law.

The opinion is expressed by Department officials that the balance for roads and schools next year will be much larger than it was for 1920 It was pointed out at the Department that commissioners of the revenue, in 1920, received fifteen cents for listing dogs up until June of that year, when the amended law, eliminating commissioners of the revenue, became operative, and this will be saved to the fund this year.

Supreme test today—Daredevil Prices beyong all expectations!! Surprise, amazement, shocks electrify each buyer—and dumfound each looker. Old trading conditions have collapsed. R. E. Knight and Son's Store slap on most daring prices! Search all past records. This sale puts to shame every other attempt The merchandise is all high grade and of the best manufacturers.

At this sale I deign to match, compete with and even undersell some of the wholesalers. Hundreds of people were cared for yesterday. Have you noticed the truck loads today? I do not want to rush you, but on the second day of this sale there have been some disappointed people because they hesitated. This is an "honest to goodness" bargain giving event, every thing for sale, nothing reserved. My advice is to dig up a little of that salted coin, bring it around and see what it will do for you.

The lawn party which the Women's Board of the Alexandria Hospital conducted last Saturday after Moncure on Seminary Hill, was a decided success, and the ladies wish to thank all who helped in any way. The weather was just right. There was a considerable crowd from Alexandria and the nearby divisions and every one seemed to have a real good time.

Rev. O. C. Beall, of Del Ray, conducted both services at the Del Ray Methodist Episcopal Church on Sunday, the pastor, Rev. J. R. Wood being still unable to take charge.

Even "news" correspondents have birthdays occasionally, and sometimes they have birthday parties; this one did, last Saturday evening at her home with Miss Dora Varney, in St. Elmo, About 30 neighbors, large and small were present as guests, also a few friends from Alexandria and Washington. There were several games on the lawn, then young Misses Alda Dawson, Ruth Varney and Alma Keys rendered solos and duets on the piano, little Alice Haley gave a recitation Margaret Dawson also recited. Ruth Varney and Miss Hilma Becker "told stories" and all joined in the hunt for the candles for the birthday cake.

A DAILY THOUGHT

Initiative is the Essence of Success in Business.

You will always find it in constant action at the top of any oraganization, where position is a patent of ability—and you'll find it conspicuous by its absence at the bottom of those same organizations.

When asked if they had any difficulty in selling their dealers the Sales Manager of a large merchandising company replied, "No, we advertise locally and sell the stuff for them."

The manufacturer, in his fight for leadership and financial success, does not stop at the manufacture of the product and the delivery of it upon the dealers' shelves. He goes ahead with advertising, and all kinds of sales developers, to move the stock for the dealer.

Have you ever pondered the subject of how such a display of initiative would work out in your particular field?

If you are an employe, try going out of your way to do something more than your particular assignment of duties calls for. Give your brain a mental massage by concentrating on an improvement in administration or operation.

Within reasonable bounds of educational qualification, you have just as much potential ability as you give yourself credit for. Try it out quietly, but seriously, in your business. The results will surprise you
